

Destructive Fire—Loss $30,000.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a dense smoke was observed in the lower end of the city, and the fire bells, through the agency of the fire-alarm telegraph, pealed forth the alarm of fire. Upon arriving at the spot from whence the smoke arose, it was discovered that the extensive agricultural implement and mattress factory of Dickinson, Bennett & Co., was on fire, and the buildings all being frame, they burned with fearful rapidity, and in less time than it takes to relate the fact, the factory which was a new one, just finished a few months since, was one pile of ruins. The fire originated from a spark from a blacksmith shop, which had blown into the moss used in that portion of the building where the mattresses were made.

The building was situated on the Louisville and Portland railroad, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets. The loss by this fire will not only be seriously felt by the company, but it is a great loss to the city, as one of our manufacturers has been destroyed, and by its destruction a number of hands have been thrown out of employment. Mr. Dickinson has been a business man in this city for a number of years, during which time, by close attention to business, he laid up a sum of money with which he built the factory that was destroyed yesterday. The loss will be severely felt by him. The factory was full of mattresses, a portion of which were burned, while others were in the process of being saved from the burning building. Dickinson, Bennett & Co. estimate their loss at from $25,000 to $30,000 upon which there was an insurance of $50,000 in Tyler & Kennedy's agencies.

The engines were promptly on the spot, but were delayed in getting on water as there are no cisterns in that section, and they were compelled to take water from ponds and streams in the neighborhood.

The Chief of the Fire Department has urged upon the Council the importance of having cisterns dug in different portions of the city, where there is none at present, and ordinances for the digging and walling of a number of cisterns have been before the Council for some time. We hope that this fire will prove a lesson to our city fathers and that the ordinance will be passed at their next meeting. It was only by the extra exertions of the Fire Department that the adjoining buildings were saved.

ST. JOHN'S DAY—MASONIC CELEBRATION.—This being the 24th day of June, it is the anniversary of the birth of John the Baptist, and as it is the usual custom with Free Masons, it will be celebrated by them in our city in grand style. The celebration of this anniversary to-day promises to be one of the most impressive ever witnessed in the country. The Masonic Fraternity will assemble at the Temple at 8 o'clock, and form into procession, the right resting on Fifth street, and proceeding thence to the city hall, where it will commence moving and move along the line as marked out by the advertisement, to be found in another column. The members of the different lodges, Chapter and Council, will be in full regalia, while the Knight Templars will be mounted on black horses. After the procession has reached the Walnut Baptist Church, corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, an oration will be delivered by the Rev. G. C. Lorimer, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Chase, as Chaplain. After the oration the procession will move to the Temple, where the different bodies will be dismissed. At precisely 3 o'clock a grand banquet which has been prepared by C. C. Rucker & Co., will be set in the large hall of the Temple. We learn that the citizens of Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Covington, New Albany, Louisville and other places, will be represented on this occasion. The day will be one to be long remembered by our friends of the mystic circle.

ROBBING A SOLDIER.—A man who sails under the cognomen of John Scott, was yesterday before the Police Court, upon the charge of robbing a soldier of $100, and was held in $500 to answer the charge at the next term of the Jefferson Circuit Court. The evidence showed that Scott, who pretended to be a friend of the soldier, got him drunk by drugging his whiskey. After the soldier became stupid, Scott took the money and left. Some time the soldier awoke and discovered his loss, which was made known to officer Spaulding and he arrested Scott. At present a large number of troops are being paid off in our city, and we would warn soldiers not to be too intimate with strangers who pretend to have their welfare at heart. The city is infested with a gang of thieves, who are waiting for the soldier who has been paid off, and after the soldier who has been paid off, induce him by some means to go to a low den, and then they rob him of his hard earnings. Within the past few days we have heard of numbers of soldiers being robbed in this manner. Soldiers cannot be too careful with whom they pick an acquaintance.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE FROM PRISON.—THE PLAN DISCOVERED.—There are at the present time in the guard house of the barracks a number of prisoners, some of them said to be men of very dangerous characters. Attempts on different occasions and in different places to escape have proved successful, and so the parties in the guard house here thought they would try the experiment. They had by some means succeeded in getting a saw into the room, which they had sawed in two of the planks in the ceiling of the room. The plank had been replaced, but Thursday evening when Capt. Kanes was to the guard room, his keen eye saw that all was not right, and search showed that a hole had been cut through the floor. Had it not been for this timely discovery, the prisoners would, no doubt, have all escaped Thursday night.

GUERRILLAS.—We are informed that a band of guerrillas or robbers made their appearance, Wednesday night, in the neighborhood of Graysville, Ky., about twelve miles from Clarksville, Tenn. They visited Mrs. Merriweather's, where they stole about $200 in greenbacks and gold watch valued at two hundred dollars. There were six or seven of the rascals. Leaving Mrs. Merriweather's, they visited a small store at Graysville. How much they stole there we did not learn. From this place they went to Haydensville, where they inflicted some injury on Mr. Chum Smith that left him senseless. What other mischief and depredations they committed we did not learn.

SHAMFLEET.—Night before last some drunken soldiers entered the shoe-shop of an old German named Moore, on upper Market street. They commenced helping themselves to his stock, and, when the old man remonstrated with them, one of the soldiers ran a bayonet into his eye, the point coming out of the side of his head. Mr. Moore, besides suffering very much, will lose his eye. Such conduct as this, on the part of Federal soldiers, is in the highest sense reprehensible, and we trust the perpetrators will meet with the punishment they so richly deserve.

PENITENT.—The rebel Senator, Henry C. Burnett, of Kentucky, who took the oath of allegiance at Clarksville, and who was arrested at Nashville, Tenn., on next day, by order of the Secretary of War, and sent to the Old Capitol, has arrived in this city.

Fourth Regiment Minnesota Infantry Veteran Volunteers.

The organization of this regiment was begun in September, 1861, and completed in December of that year.

Original roster, Field and Staff, Col. J. B. Sanborn (now Brevet Major-General); Lieutenant-Colonel, Minor T. Thomas (now Brevet Brigadier-General); Major, S. S. Baxter; Surgeon, J. H. Murphy; Assistant Surgeon, E. W. Cross; Chaplain, Asa S. Fiske; Adjutant, Jno. M. Thompson; Quartermaster, Thomas B. Hunt.

During the winter of '61 and '62 companies were on duty at the frontier forts of Ridgely, Ripley and Abernethy, the latter three hundred miles north-west from Fort Snelling. Early in March, 1862, these companies were recalled to Fort Snelling, and in April the regiment went to St. Louis. May 4th went to Paris Landing, Tennessee river, and formed part of an expedition sent to Paris, Tennessee, under Col. Lowe. May 14th, arrived at Hamburg Landing, Marched to Camp Scott, before Corinth, and were assigned to General Buford's brigade (First) Third division, Army of the Mississippi. After the evacuation of Corinth the regiment was encamped first at Big Springs, afterwards at Jacinto, Mississippi. Sept. 19th, 1862, were engaged at Iuka, Col. Sanborn commanding brigade. Oct. 3d and 4th, 1862, engaged at Corinth. In the first day's fight the regiment was led by Gen. Buford in person, and made a successful charge, unsupported by other troops, and won twice its numbers. In November, 1862, were among the forces led by Gen. Grant that penetrated to the Yazoo, beyond Oxford, Mississippi. Returned to Memphis in December, 1862. Until March, 1863, the regiment was at White's Station, near Memphis, guarding the railroad; were then in the Seventeenth Army Corps. On March 3d, 1863, the regiment embarked on transports and went to Woodford's Landing, La. Water crossing the country, re-embarked and returned to La. Helena, Ark. March 14th went on board smaller transports and entered the Yazoo Pass. After ten days' march, reached Ft. Pemberton, two hundred miles from Helena. Expedition being abandoned returned and went to Milliken's Bend, La., thence to Brunsburg, La. Took part in Vicksburg campaign, being engaged at Forty Hills, Raymond, Jackson, Champion Hills, Assault and Siege of Vicksburg. The Regiment lost half its commissioned officers and a heavy per cent. of men at the assault. July 4th, '63, marched into the city of Vicksburg. Were stationed in the city until September when the Division was ordered to Memphis, thence with Gen. Sherman's expedition across the country to Chattanooga, arriving there Nov. 20th, '63. Crossed the Tennessee river, and on midnight, Nov. 23rd, were engaged at Mission Ridge the 24th and 25th. In December, '63, the regiment with the rest of the Division was transferred to the 15th Army Corps and ordered to Huntsville, Alabama. January 1st, '64, the regiment re-embarked as veterans. Went to the State on furlough, and returned to Huntsville, July 14th, '64, were stationed at Alabama, Ga., guarding the railroad. Were engaged at that place Oct. 3d, '64, the regiment captured eighty prisoners including several officers, and the colors of the 35th and 36th Mississippi regiments. The latter were sent to the Governor of Mississippi. In Nov., '64, began the long march which brought us through Georgia to the Ocean, thence northward, through South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia to Washington. From Washington came by cars and boat to Louisville, arriving here June 4th, being the first regiment of Gen. Sherman's army that marched from the landing.

Since its entry into service the regiment has marched 301 miles, traveled by steamboat and railroad 6,245 miles. Total distance traveled 9,260 miles. Since its organization 1,691 names have been on the roll of the regiment. Its aggregate loss is 563.

Present Roster of Field and Staff.—Col. Jno. E. Tourtellotte (Brevet Brig. General); Lt. Colonel, James C. Edson; Asst. Surgeon, Geo. D. Lambert; Chaplain, Chas. H. Savidge; Adjutant, W. W. Rich; Quartermaster, Sam'l W. Russell.

This gallant regiment is now in the 1st Brigade, 1st Division, 15th Army Corps, near this city.

AMUSEMENTS.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—The benefit of Miss Kitty Blanchard last night was a complete success, the house being crowded to overflowing. To-night the second week of her engagement, appearing in the "French Spy" and the "Good for Nothing."

LOUISVILLE CASINO.—This popular place of amusement continues to do a good business, and will be as long as they have the excellent troupe engaged. It is worth more than the price of admission to see Dick Sands in one of his great feats. The choir for to-night is an excellent one.

LARK & CO. CIGARS.—This mammoth concern was crowded yesterday and last night. They give their usual entertainments this afternoon and to-night, to go and see.

INFOSITION.—A little girl for the past several days, has visited several dry goods stores, purchasing goods and taking them to charge them to Mr. B. Morse. She represents herself as being his daughter, which is not so, and Mr. M. will not settle any bills she may make hereafter. She is said to be very sharp, and good at obtaining goods under false pretenses.

GOLDER, THE GUERRILLA, CAPTURED.—One of the most notorious guerrillas that has ever infested our State has been young Golder. He is a hard fellow to catch. On Thursday he was captured by the citizens in the neighborhood of Miller's Spring, nine miles from New Haven, Ky., and brought in here last night.

Judge Johnston being absent yesterday, Mayor McWhorter presided as Judge of the City Court. A large amount of business was disposed of in less time than it generally takes to try one drunk case.

We hope our friends—the ladies and farmers especially—will remember that the Horticultural Exhibition will take place at the usual hour this morning in the Masonic Temple.

A fine lunch will be set at the Young America, on Third street, between Jefferson and Green, to-night at 9 o'clock. Everybody is invited.

There were about 150 members of the Twenty-eighth Kentucky regiment, besides the officers, who went to Texas. They were all veterans.
